Hi Everyone!!!

We are doing it AGAIN!!!! A new knitting and crocheting cruise leaving October 25th, 2020. Ok, it is 2 and some years away, but all the more time to start planning and saving. We will be sailing on the Harmony of the Seas, Royal Caribbean, out of Port Canaveral . Harmony is coming in at the end of the year. We have a fabulous new travel agent who has already worked with Royal Caribbean to select a block of rooms toward the front of the ship so when you need to come to the convention center, you will be able to take the elevators closest to you. We are starting a notebook with names of those who are interested in getting priority booking as soon as the ship becomes available. Just call the shop and say, I'm IN!!! Lots of planning still to do, but I promise it will be wonderful fun!! It's also over Halloween again!!

Back to 2018. In looking over the July schedule; we have featured many Christmas/Holiday Classes. It's a great time to start those projects and we can help you get them finished in time. I have seen the stockings and they are lovely. Come in and take a look at the class examples anytime.

I know it is hot outside and you may think it's too hot to knit or crochet, but our air conditioning works, and we are cool and comfortable at the table. Lots of chocolate and fun conversation. Our team of fine instructors is always available for free help if you drop a stitch or find a pattern confusing. Remember, private lessons are available if you cannot make the scheduled class and are still only $30.00. We have checked class prices all around, and we are still the most affordable and have the most classes offered each month. If you miss a class, don't worry, we will catch you up. I always say this is "Knitting not Rocket Science" (although some of the patterns I've seen may rival that comment!)

We always have something exciting and fun happening in the shop. Feel free to stop by, bring a project, get some help, wind some yarn, take a class, or help yourself to the chocolate!! So, get that piggy bank out because there is lots of time to save up for the great rates we will have for you on the cruise!!

We look forward to seeing each one of you soon! Have a happy summer!
