

MAY 2017 NEWSLETTER

Hi Everyone!!

I think it's time for a sale of some sort. How about if we open July 4th from 10-4 and have a sale along with being open? Good, we will do that. If you are not doing anything special come on down and knit or crochet and pick up some odds and ends for your stash. I'll make brownies and let's have champagne.

Kaori, Shigeko, Gloria, Lisa, Christine and I will be going to The National Needle Arts convention In Ohio for the weekend June 9th. You may remember it is our industry trade show. We are excited to find new ideas, patterns and of course, yarns to order for the shop. It's hard work, but we always have a lot of fun.

Cruise News

We are so excited!! Class packets will be mailed June 1. If you are going on the cruise and have any questions, feel free to call the shop. We still have some cabins available if you are considering our adventure. A reminder, time to get your passport if you do not have one. If you already have one, be sure it is valid for six months after we sail. You may have read about our cruise in the Interweave KNITS Summer issue and our visit with Haitibabi when we port in Haiti. We are working on a gift of 50 solar powered lanterns (with cell phone chargers...oh my) for their village. They do not have electricity and that's what they needed It is a charity donation and we are accepting donations if you would like to help.

Ok, we have decided on a sale July 4th and will report back after TNNA in June. Cruise classes go out the first. Take care of yourselves. We are always happy to see each one of you when you come to the shop! Don't forget to have a cup of tea, coffee, water, wine and/or chocolates!! See you soon!
